

THE NEWS FROM THE OLD NORTH STATE AND ITS CAPITAL.

OUR RALEIGH
NEWS LETTERDr. Holladay Still President of the
A. and M. College.

THE DEADLOCK UNBROKEN

Election of His Successor Postponed to July 5—Trinity College Graduates—Commencement Exercises of Davidson College—St. John's Day at the Oxford Orphanage—The Penitentiary Physician Barred.

Raleigh, N. C., June 8.—Col. A. Q. Holladay is still president of the A. and M. College, and will remain so for another month. The trustees have been unable to elect his successor and he will hold over until they do elect.

Two ballots were taken for president yesterday, and as they showed that the deadlock was still unbroken the board adjourned till July 5th, hoping to have better luck then.

The motion to adjourn was made by a Winston man and seconded by a Primrose supporter and carried almost unanimously.

The next most important thing done by the board was to separate the chairs of agriculture and horticulture, with a full professor, at $1,500 a year, at the head of each. This will make another vacancy—professor of agriculture—to be filled by the board in July. For at that meeting it is expected to elect both a president and all members of the faculty.

TRINITY GRADUATES.

The graduating class of Trinity College this year is composed of eleven young men and one young lady. The young lady was Miss Isabel Elias, daughter of the Hon. Hope Elias, and she was the sixth young lady who ever received a diploma from Trinity College. The entire class and their homes are as follows: Messrs. W. H. Adams, of Denver, this State; J. H. Barnhardt, Mr. Pleasant; E. T. Bowling, Durham; L. W. Elias, Franklin; R. B. Etheridge, Manteo; D. W. Newsom, Littleton; L. C. Nicholson, Richlands; H. M. North, Laurinburg; W. N. Parker, Morganton; E. R. Welch, Red Springs; P. T. Willis, Elizabeth City, and Miss Isabel Elias, Franklin.

The class was a small one, but what was lacking in numbers was made up in intelligence. The intellectual appearance of the class was equal to any that ever left the college.

OXFORD ORPHAN ASYLUM.

Preparation are already in progress at the Oxford Orphanage for the celebration of St. John's Day on June 24th. There will be an old-fashioned basket picnic and songs by the children. Exercises in memory of the late J. H. Mills, founder of the institution, will be held on this day and memorial addresses will be delivered by General W. R. Cox, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. J. D. Hufham, of Henderson.

DR. ROGERS BURNED OUT.

There was an episode at the penitentiary yesterday that would not have been wholly devoid of humor, had there not been such a prodigious amount of disregard for a man's rights and feelings in it. It has already been noted in these columns how Capt. Day had, without consulting Dr. Rogers, the physician, gone ahead and appointed Dr. McKee as physician, or rather had given McKee a note to Manager Arnold, saying he (Day) had appointed him (McKee). It has been told also how Rogers had determined to continue in the discharge of his duties until he had been granted the common courtesy of being notified to quit. Dr. McKee had also been going out and going through the hospital.

Yesterday morning Dr. Rogers went to pay his morning visit to the sick in the penitentiary but was denied admission by the guard with a gun.

EDENTON.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) Edenton, N. C., June 8.—Mrs. Elizabeth Williams leaves to-day for her home at Brambleton, accompanied by Mrs. Pat Elliott.

At a recent meeting of the Masons of our town, they elected officers for the ensuing term as follows: W. M., Mr. E. R. Conger; S. W., W. J. Leary, Jr.; Jr. W., J. R. Wheeler; Treasurer, T. E. Gardner; Secretary, C. P. Bogart; Representative, L. F. Ziegler.

Senator Thos. G. Skinner, of Hertford, is in our little city this morning. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kittrell left this morning for Kittrell, N. C., to spend the summer.

Mrs. W. J. Leary, Sr., and Miss Claude Woodard are at Norfolk on a visit to relatives.

The town Councilmen will meet to-night, at which time it will be decided whether whiskey shall be sold North of King street in our little city.

ELON COLLEGE.

THE TENTH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT OPENING PROGRAM.

Elon College, N. C., June 8.—The tenth annual commencement of Elon College opened last night with the following program by the society representatives:

Motel, Valse Brillante, two pianos, Misses Gay, Elliott, Watson and Pritchett.

C. J. Green, Philologist, Suffolk, Va. Subject: Hidden Stars.

Mamie Holland, Psiphellan, Holland, Va. Subject: Only a Strand of Silk.

Cecil, I Hear Thee Speak of a Better Land, (Mrs. Hemans), Tenor Solo, Mr. George Whitley.

C. C. Jones, Clio, Holland, Va. Subject: The Influence of the True Woman.

Lizzie Jane Long, Psiphellan, Holland, Va. Subject: Society's Utopia.

Rotell, Too Young for Love, (Olliver Wendell Holmes), Contralto Solo, Miss Alma Elliott.

B. F. Black, Philologist, Harrisonburg, Va. Subject: The Master of Assemblies.

Carl H. Herndon, Clio, Elon College, N. C. Subject: A Lesson From the Enemy.

Kelth, Spanish Suite, Piano Duet, Misses Gay and Elliott.

The music was of a very high order and reflected great credit upon the teachers of that department. The speeches and essays by the representatives of the several societies were far above the average and held the close attention of the large audience present.

The number of visitors from this and adjoining States is larger than usual and others are coming on every train.

HALIFAX BONDS.

BANK OF WELDON SECURES THE ENTIRE ISSUE.

Weldon, N. C., June 8.—The County Commissioners yesterday afternoon received and opened bids for the $15,000 of 6 per cent. Halifax county bonds.

There were ten bids, all being for the entire amount with the exception of Mr. Hoffman & Bro., of Scotland Neck, who bid for $2,000 at 102½. The other bids were as follows:

R. T. and R. L. Gray, Raleigh, $16,087.50; Seasengood & Mayer, Cincinnati, $16,109.50; Bank of Scotland Neck, $105.50; Dinnison, Prior & Co., Cleveland, O., $16,126.50; W. J. Hayes & Son, Cleveland, O., $15,427.00; New First National Bank, Columbus, O., $15,883.00; N. B. Joseph, Scotland Neck, $105.25; Bank of Weldon, $16,087.50; Duke M. Fossen, Chicago, $105.00; W. A. Demm, Scotland Neck, $103.00.

The Bank of Weldon having made the best straight bid gets the entire issue of bonds. The other bidders, appearing a little higher than the Weldon bank had conditions attached to their bids, which amounted to an option on the bonds only, and the Board of Commissioners so decided.

ELIZABETH CITY.

The Thermometer at 98 in the Shade.

Transactions in the Mayor's Court—New Residence—Property Transfer—A Welcome Addition—Colored Hook and Ladder Company.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Elizabeth City, N. C., June 8.—The thermometer stood 98 in the shade yesterday at 4 p. m., and bids fair to go still higher to-day. Work is almost at a standstill on account of the oppressive heat.

THE MAYOR'S COURT.

In the Mayor's Court this morning the following cases were heard: Isabella Brockett and Ella Wheeler, charged with disturbing the peace and using profane language on the street; fined $2.50 and costs each.

Frank Reynolds, fast driving; fined $2 and costs.

One drunk, ordered out of town.

NEW BUILDINGS, ETC.

Mr. W. M. Baxter has laid the foundation for a fine residence on Russe street. Messrs. Chilcott and Bramble have the contract.

Mr. M. G. Wright and wife transferred by bargain and sale yesterday to Mrs. Mary L. Jackson, their house and lot on Road street for $1,025.

A WELCOME ADDITION.

Mr. L. W. Norman, of Hertford, N. C., is in town to-day prospecting, we understand, with a view to moving here. Mr. Norman already has some business interests in the town, being part owner of the Elizabeth City Brick Works. He is a man of considerable push and enterprise, and our people will give him a hearty welcome.

The colored Hook and Ladder Company a short time since had the misfortune to lose about $80, which they had set apart for uniforms. This was never recovered, but other arrangements have been made by which the company is enabled to order uniforms, to arrive about the 25th of this month.

A large number of men engaged in the life-saving service have been in town for several days making their summer purchases, in consequence of which our merchants have enjoyed a good trade.

Mr. Peacock, of Roper, N. C., are visiting friends and relatives in town.
